

Raffaele Sperandeo, MD, PhD

Department of Neurosciences, Reproductive and Odontostomatological Sciences, University of Naples Federico II, Italy; SiPGI - Postgraduate School of Integrated Gestalt Psychotherapy, Torre Annunziata, Napoli, Italy

Raffaele Sperandeo is a medical doctor, psychiatrist, Gestalt psychotherapist, and clinical psychology researcher in the Department of Neurosciences, Reproductive and Odontostomatological Sciences at the University of Naples Federico II. He specialized in psychiatry and earned his Ph.D. in Behavioral Sciences at the Second University of Naples (SUN). He has previously served as an adjunct professor of Clinical Psychology at the Second University of Naples and of Child Neuropsychiatry at the University of Basilicata. He is the Scientific Director of the Postgraduate School of Integrated Gestalt Psychotherapy (SiPGI) and President of the Italian Federation of Gestalt Schools and Institutes (FISIG). He has also served as the medical director of a multidisciplinary center for psychiatry, psychotherapy, and speech therapy. He is the Editor-in-Chief of Phenomena Journal, a peer-reviewed scientific journal aimed at professionals in the fields of psychopathology, neuroscience, and psychotherapy.